Company Profile

Early 1930s

Mr. Njoo Tjhay Kwee (Mr. Yeung Chai Huei) migrated from the impoverished Nan An, Fujian Province, China, to Pasuruan, Indonesia, where he started as a street vendor selling drinks.

1935 June 15th

Mr. Yeung founded a small factory named “SINA” to begin producing ginger candy. SINA, in Chinese, means New Asia. Sindu Amritha, the Indonesian name of the factory, is derived from Sanskrit, meaning the River of Life or River of Nectar. These names reflect the founder’s belief in the health benefits of ginger candies and his hope for his motherland.

For nearly ten decades now

SINA ginger candies are still made with the same traditional recipes using fresh and natural ingredients, bringing you the benefits of ginger in a delicious, spicy and sweet flavor.

1935

The SINA candy factory was founded in indonesia.

1941-1945
